Sunday Vote Ends DeGaulle Majority

PARIS (AP) — French voters mauled the prestige of President Charles de Gaulle's government badly Sunday and left his forces with a majority of only one to three votes in the National Assembly. Even that narrow margin was in doubt.

With two of the 487 Assembly seats still undecided, the Ministry of Interior reported candidates pledged to De Gaulle had won 244 seats, or a majority of at least one in the full Assembly.

Other checks of the candidates' political labels indicated the Gaullists had won only 243 seats, while the combined opposition had 241 or 242. French political experts varied in their assessment of the situation.

The election for one seat in Tahiti will be held next Sunday. Another seat is being held for French Somaliland in case that African territory decides in a referendum next Sunday to remain with France rather than choosing independence.

The Gaullists had a solid 40-seat majority in the outgoing

National Assembly.

The president's personal tenure was not affected, he having been elected in 1965 for a seven-year term. But whether De Gaulle will have a "governable" assembly will apparently hinge on a bloc of at least 30 and possible 42 seats controlled by Jean Lecanuet's Center Democrats. Lecanuet indicated before the elections that he would support the Gaullists on certain issues if they showed signs of adjusting to his demands. These include European unity and continuation of the Atlantic Alliance.

The voters knocked four of De Gaulle's ministers out—Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville, Defense Minister Pierre Messmer, Veterans Minister Alexandre Sanguinetti, and Jean Charbonnel, in charge of cooperation with former French African territories.

The Gaullist defeat, which had not been foreseen in public opinion polls, was fashioned largely by a smooth working electoral pact forged by the strong French Communist party and the leftist federation of Socialists and other non-Communist leftists.

The agreement brought the left surging into French politics in strength recalling the days of the victorious Popular Front in 1936.

The runoff election also was marked by the political comeback of leftist Pierre Mendes-France, who as premier ended the French Indochinese war in 1954. Mendes-France handily defeated a Gaullist in Grenoble.

U.S. Warplanes Hammer Hanoi Power Complex

SAIGON (AP) — U.S. warplanes made their heaviest strikes against North Vietnam in four months Sunday, concentrating their strongest attacks on an electric power center 32 miles northwest of Hanoi.

Seizing upon breaks in the weather, the American fighter-bombers from Thailand unloaded tons of bombs on the Viet Tri power complex, sending black and brown smoke billowing 3,000 feet in the air and visible in Hanoi.

Although Hanoi radio claimed U.S. jets hit the capital itself, a U.S. spokesman said the Viet Tri strike was the only one in the Hanoi area. Apart from hitting the power complex, American fliers struck only at anti-aircraft gun positions in the immediate area, he said.

The spokesman said 126 missions were flown against the North Sunday, meaning that possibly 400 planes took part. It was the busiest day in the air war since Nov. 8.

One American jet was lost during the day and its two-man crew was reported missing. It was an RF-4C Phantom photo-reconnaissance plane which evidently went in after the raids.

One Soviet-designed MIG was sighted by the American pilots but it made no firing passes.

U.S. spokesmen also reported sharp ground battles Sunday in the vital central highlands and an unusually high number of guerrilla attacks against isolated outposts. The ground action reflected apparent Communist determination to concentrate on hit-and-run assaults to increase allied casualties.

The Air Force spokesman said that heavy weather closed in on the Hanoi area just after the big American strikes. Most of the other Air Force, Navy and Marine strikes during the day fell on supply lines down the southern coast.

One flight of planes coming off the Viet Tri power plant raid, with their bombs all gone, lucked on a convoy of 50 trucks. The flight flashed down with 20mm cannon blazing and left many trucks aflame, a spokesman said.

U.S. President Walter P. Reuther already has announced the union will win "a guaranteed annual income" or will sign no contracts with the automakers this year. In other words, he'll strike, if necessary, to get it.

On top of this, skilled tradesmen are expected to adopt these goals, either one of which could cause a strike:

1. The right to walkout when a company farms to outside contractors work which UAW members feel they are entitled to do.
2. Lines of demarcation for the various skilled trades: spelling out just what, and no more, an electrician, a millwright or a machinist will be expected to do.

The Big Three automakers, General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, have successfully fought off Reuther's demands for the equivalent of a guaranteed annual income since 1957. For the first time, however, Reuther is making it the number one goal and a potential strike issue.

The UAW amended its constitution in 1966 to permit segments of its membership, white-collar, skilled and production workers, to vote separately on new contracts with a provision that all must approve before the signing of an agreement.

Veto Power

Thus, although outnumbered more than four-to-one in the auto plants, skilled workers would have veto power.

Segment voting must be approved in advance by the union's 26-member international executive board, but there is lit-

Negro Leaders In Civil Rights Called Reason

NEW YORK (AP) — James H. Meredith, a civil rights maverick who drew the wrath of many Negro leaders for opposing Adam Clayton Powell, suddenly pulled out of the special congressional race today. He apparently gave in to growing pressures.

In a surprise post-midnight announcement, just as stunning as his entry into the race last Tuesday as the choice of Republican leaders, Meredith offered no explanation for his withdrawal. He declined to elaborate on a one-sentence statement: "I have decided not to run in the 18th Congressional District."

Some Harlem sources said that Meredith, an independent Democrat, bowed to pressures from civil rights leaders. There also were reports that Powell, through intermediaries, had been appealing to Meredith to drop out.

One Unity Need

The appeals were said to have been made on grounds of a need for Negro unity. Meredith reportedly was told that by accepting the Republican nomination to run against Powell, a Democrat, he would be the white man's candidate.

Sources said Meredith was told that he could make an even more dramatic gesture by giving up the support of the white people. This, it was said, would make him an even bigger hero in the Negro community.

One factor that reportedly indirectly influenced his decision to quit, it was understood, was a statement by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

King said in Hartford, Conn., Sunday night that Meredith's campaign against Powell in Harlem is ill-timed. King said that it would be much better for the House to seat Powell again because of what he termed "unique factors" which would cause Harlem Negroes to vote for him en masse.

Meredith, 33, admitted when

Johnson, Aides Fly To Guam Next Week For Strategy Huddle

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's Vietnam strategy huddle in Guam next week — though not expected to include Premier Nguyen Cao Ky — is regarded as another attempt to dramatize the U.S. military and civil development commitment to Ky's war-torn country.

Ky attended Johnson's last two Pacific conclaves — at Honolulu in February 1966 and at Manila last October.

But sources indicated the Guam session, announced Saturday night, will probably involve only top Americans, including Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Ambassador to Saigon Henry Cabot Lodge, and Gen. William Westmoreland, commander of U.S. troops in Vietnam.

Johnson is to leave late Saturday and arrive early Monday Guam time.

George Christian, White House press secretary, said the meetings are expected to last "a short time — a few days at the most."

Expect No Policy Shift

It is not expected that any major change in U.S. policy will come out of the meeting, but that emphasis will be placed on slowly increasing military pressure and intensifying attempts to win over the South Vietnamese people through economic and political development.

Likely also to be discussed are changes some have proposed to strengthen Westmoreland's command along the lines of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's supreme allied command in World War II.

The increasing military pressure has been underlined in the past few days by stepped up ground action and air strikes against North Vietnam's principal steel mill. Hanoi Radio claimed Sunday that U.S. planes bombed an area within Hanoi city limits.

Though opponents of the bombing have continued to call for its halt as a means of promoting peace talks, Johnson is believed disillusioned with such efforts and believes instead that the price of the war for North Vietnam must be raised.

Approve Kennedy Plan

There were more antibombing statements Sunday, with the most unique development coming at a state meeting of the California Democratic Council in Fresno.

Delegates of the volunteer organization representing 30,000 members adopted a policy statement that unless the war ends by September, the organization will oppose Johnson in 1968 California presidential primary with a slate of delegates pledged to a peace candidate.

They also shouted approval for U.S. Sen. Robert F. Kennedy's plan for peace — cessation of bombing of the North as a prelude to immediate peace talks.

Johnson, who spent Saturday night and most of Sunday at his Camp David, Md., retreat, may go from Guam direct to the LBJ Ranch in Texas for Easter weekend, one source said.

Two persons were killed and a third was injured in a head-on collision near Saginaw Sunday as 18 persons died on Michigan highways over the weekend.

A car driven by Ronald Freeman, 20, of Reese, collided head-on with one driven by Lyle Weiler, 21, of Saginaw, on North Michigan Road in Carlton Township sheriff's deputies said. Freeman and his passenger, Joyce Ann Deeg, 20, of Saginaw, were killed. Weiler was in poor condition today at Saginaw General Hospital.

Contract Work, Job Limitation Hot UAW Issues

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP) —Wielding more power within the union ever before, skilled tradesmen of the United Auto Workers are likely to set two new contract goals, other than a guaranteed annual income, which could cause strikes in the auto industry this year.

The tradesmen will do their goal-setting Thursday, Friday and Saturday in a special convention of the UAW's Skilled Trades Department at Atlantic City, N.J.

UAW President Walter P. Reuther already has announced the union will win "a guaranteed annual income" or will sign no contracts with the automakers this year. In other words, he'll strike, if necessary, to get it.

UAW Goals?

On top of this, skilled tradesmen are expected to adopt these goals, either one of which could cause a strike:

1. The right to walkout when a company farms to outside contractors work which UAW members feel they are entitled to do.

GOP Asks For Officials' Code

GRAND RAPIDS (AP) — A code of ethics and conduct should be applied to all elected officials on all levels of government, the Republican State Central Committee says.

The committee held an organizational meeting in Grand Rapids Friday and Saturday and named a secretary and treasurer and passed a resolution on ethics.

Rep. Garry Brown, R-Mich., told the crowd of 150 attending the general session that House Republican freshmen have "unleashed a massive effort to provide Congress and the electorate with a constructive answer to the Adam Clayton Powell case."

He likelihood it would be denied. Pressure by skilled tradesmen for a larger voice has been growing. Some even have raised threats of withdrawing from the UAW.

Before the constitutional change, only a majority of all voting was necessary for contract ratification. Companies long have considered the privilege of bringing in outside contractors for maintenance.

Forced?

MANSFIELD, Ohio (AP) —A rebellious local leader of the United Auto Workers Union said he planned today to notify the FBI about "threats" which he said forced him to quit his job with General Motors.

Frank Petty, who turned in a "quit slip" at GM's labor-dispute-plagued Fisher Body Division plant Sunday, told the Cleveland Plain Dealer the union had forced him to resign.

UAW officials refused to comment on the charges.

Petty quit with two others deeply involved in a February wildcat strike that idled the factory for eight days and was blamed for layoffs of almost 200,000 GM workers around the country for lack of parts.

ance, new equipment installation and the like, a management right.

Automakers argue that the decision on whether to use outside contractors is an important managerial prerogative and that the plants have neither the manpower nor the equipment to do all maintenance, tool and die, and installation work.

Outside Top Class

The union contends the companies often require a tradesman to do jobs outside his classifications, setting up in some instances multi-job classifications for such as "welder - fixture

Fatal Analysis:

Driver Failure,
Drink And Speed

Almost half of all drivers involved in Michigan's 2,284 fatal traffic accidents in 1966 had been drinking, and were driving too fast on two lane roads at night within 25 miles of home, in cars whose average age was 3.2 years with no mechanical defects and no seat belts, Automobile Club of Michigan's General Manager Fred N. Rehm revealed today.

Driver failure was primary cause of 89 per cent of the deaths.

These facts emerge from a 61-page study, titled "How To Bring More Back Alive," which projects a representative 20 per cent sample of Michigan's 1966 deaths. It will be published next week along with Auto Club's suggestions on what to do about the seven per cent increase in traffic deaths last year.

Bad Ones Drive

Triple A safety analysts visited scenes of 435 traffic deaths in July, August and over Memorial Day weekend and analyzed them plus drivers' records and what drivers had been doing immediately prior to the accidents.

Other facts the study reveals: The point system identifies bad drivers but does not protect the rest of society by taking them off the road. The 10 worst drivers involved in the 363 accidents studied had a lifetime average of 44 points each, 11 times more than the average driver gets in his lifetime. They had an average of eight speeding or reckless driving convictions.

Four per cent of the drivers involved had a total of 35 suspensions, with one suspended eight times. But nearly 20 per cent of drivers whose licenses are suspended or revoked get them back or have the suspensions modified by appeal boards or the courts.

Not Old Cars

"Any driver who has over 12 points in any two-year period is headed for a serious accident," Rehm said. "His chances of being involved in a fatal accident are almost eight times greater than the average driver."

"Our investigators, who are not auto engineers, could find no evidence that vehicle defects played a significant role as accident causes," Rehm said. "They could find only one bald tire that may have contributed to severity of an accident, but could not have caused it. Tire defects were found on six cars, along with one light and one brake defect."

"Old cars — the kind that look unsafe standing still — were in a surprisingly small minority," Rehm said. "Average age of the cars was three years and three months, with less than seven per cent 10 years or older. Only 13 per cent of the cars checked had seat belts, and in only two cases were they used."

MUCC Clubs Favor
Bucks Only Hunts

A record turnout of representatives of the 7 Michigan United Conservation Club's clubs in the Upper Peninsula was told by state leaders of the state's biggest sportsmen's federation at their regional meeting here at Marquette on Sunday to support basic conservation programs like the fight on water pollution and on curbs on the ownership of firearms.

If the waters become polluted so they won't support fish and wildlife, and if Congress enacts a stringent gun control bill, there won't be much point in arguing about deer shooting, suggested Joseph Strait of Fruitport, president of the MUCC. Members of sportsmen's clubs tend to get most concerned with game management and often neglect the conditions which destroy its habitat.

Dr. John Kitchel of Grand Haven, vice president of MUCC and head of its Fish Committee, told of legislation affecting the state's fisheries and especially the reorientation of the Fish Division of the Conservation Department.

Goodman Presides

Gerald Goodman of Iron River, Region 1 vice president of MUCC presided at the session, attended by 35 club representatives and also by representatives of the Conservation Department and U.S. Forest Service. The meeting took action on resolutions to be presented at the MUCC state convention in Manistee in June as follows:

● Calling on MUCC and its clubs to make an all-out effort to inform the public on the harm that would be done by the Dodd Firearms Bill to curtail the right to own and carry firearms. Carried.

● Because the Isle Royale study of moose-wolf relations has "proved that predators do stabilize the preferred species without the man harvest of them, leaving the sportsmen without his wants and needs satisfied or recognized, the MUCC should study the problem of bounties on predators in terms of the U.P. area, and recommend that the bounty be reinstated on fox and bobcats." Carried.

Trout Fishing

● Because Keweenaw Bay is a natural spawning ground for lake trout and a fine protected area for sports fishing, the part south of the Portage Lake Lighthouse and the mouth of the Big Huron River should be closed to commercial fishing for lake trout. Referred to the MUCC Fish Committee for re-drafting.

● Because the staggered season for deer in the Upper and Lower Peninsulas is not good management, the opening day should be the Saturday nearest Nov. 15. Carried.

● Because the bear hunting season with dogs extends too close to the deer season and spoils the deer and drives them into deep swamps, bear hunting with dogs in the U.P. should be limited to the period before October. Referred to the MUCC Big Game Committee.

Escanaba River Fishery

● Because the quality fishing program set up by the Fish Division of the Conservation Department for the Escanaba River has not proven out as expected and the fishing has been even worse than before, the Fish Division should study the situation from Boney Falls to County Road 519 and take what measures are necessary to improve the brook, brown and rainbow trout fishing by restocking and habitat improvements. Carried.

● In the past two years the Fish Division "has been engaged in propagation and promotion of salmon with apparently very great possibilities of success, of which we approve, but in this period they have done very little or no stocking of streams or improvement work on trout streams and rivers. Because the trout hatchery facilities they have used in this salmon program were constructed with trout stamp monies the work of improving and stocking trout streams should be resumed without delay." Carried.

● The Township of Forsyth and the Gwin School District, Marquette County have been dumping sewage into the Es-

Farm Program Shifts Sights

GRAND RAPIDS — America's growing awareness of conservation and recreation needs is bringing about a change in emphasis in many federal farm programs, according to Harry A. Peters, director of field operations in 13 Northeast States for the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. He described the changes to the Michigan ASC Conference here recently.

Peters said that in many commodity adjustment programs, such as feed grain and wheat, there will be less emphasis in the future on restricting production and more concern with conservation and protection of land that is presently cropped.

Surpluses are gone in these crops and several million acres must be returned to production. Because of this, he said, greater attention will be given to protecting land that is in crops.

Peters also cited a projected 40 per cent increase in per capita consumption of livestock products between 1960 and 1980. If this demand is to be met, "we must assign a higher priority to protection and improvement of our forage producing lands," he declared.

He also called on farmers to help in preventing water pollution problems that often begin at the farm and make their way to urban areas. He described federal programs which assist farmers with these problems.

The other area where changes will become more evident, Peters said, is in multiple uses of agricultural land.

"This is a concept of land use which includes its use for wildlife and recreation as well as protection of down stream water for cities and industry," he said.

Aiding in this effort is ASCS's Agriculture Conservation Program a cost-sharing effort which establishes conservation and recreation projects. Among the projects are farm ponds which now total more than 2 million constructed under the ACP program.

City Street Revenues Needed, Council Told

The Escanaba City Council when it meets in regular session Thursday at 8 p.m. at the City Hall is expected to adopt resolutions supporting legislation which would provide more funds for street improvements under highway "tax bills."

The Michigan Good Roads Federation, County

Road Commissions and the Municipal League are among those advocating legislation to bring more revenues for streets and highways, said City Manager George Harvey.

"This legislation proposes an increase of 1 per cent in the gas tax, an increase of 20 per cent in license plates for passenger cars and an increase of 10 per cent in the weight tax for commercial vehicles," Harvey explained.

"To the City of Escanaba the passage of this legislation would mean an additional $40,000 in highway revenues. This will help tremendously in our street maintenance program."

Revenues Needed

The winter weather has created bad street conditions in some parts of the city, the manager noted. He described 8th Ave. S. from 14th St. west as in "a deplorable condition" and said that cost estimates are being prepared toward plans for reconstruction.

"We are faced with a huge task of resurfacing (city streets) and at the present time we are devoting ourselves to priorities under the capital improvement program," Harvey pointed out.

The matter of city support to legislation which would provide additional street funds will be considered by the Council Thursday night. Also on the agenda for the meeting are:

Hearing of objections to alley paving improvement; public hearing on an amendment to the appropriation ordinance, necessary in part because of the over-spending to keep streets clear of snow this winter; and report of the architect on preliminary plans and estimates for the proposed recreation building.

Other Proposals

First reading of an ordinance to change the zoning from Residence A to Residence B in the area between 8th Ave. N. and 10th Ave. N. from Stephenson Ave. to the alley east of Sheridan Ave.

Appointment of a Council member to the Delta County Allocation Board; consider the resignation of Dr. N. L. Lindquist from the Recreation Board; and consider resolutions in proposed state legislation.

The latter includes opposition to a proposal by the Legislature to authorize the State Treasurer to invest the funds of retirement systems, including the Municipal Employees Retirement System. None of the fund is state money and the state should not administer it, the cities believe.

Another proposed Council resolution pertains to a legislative change in police and fire pension systems to allow retirement after 25 years of service rather than after 55 years of age and "most important, it would provide for total and permanent disability at any time, with no age and with no years of service requirement," Harvey reported.

Negro Leaders In Civil Rights Called Reason

he accepted the Republican offer to oppose Powell that he was laying himself open to "the fear and the scorn from fellow Negroes."

Not a single Negro political leader of either major party, or any Harlem community or national civil rights leader supported him. They said he was being used and didn't stand a chance of winning.

Vincent F. Albano Jr., New York County Republican chairman, said:

"The Republican party of New York County offered this nomination to Mr. Meredith in complete good faith. It was willingly, even eagerly accepted."

Albano said that despite Meredith's withdrawal, the GOP would put up an opponent against Powell.

Meredith's nomination was to have been endorsed by the New York County Republican Committee at a meeting scheduled for tonight.

Meredith, at his apartment, was wearing dark slacks and a white shirt. He knotted tie was pulled down slightly from the open collar. Meredith's wife appeared briefly in the doorway to the living room and then retired to a rear room.

Meredith declined to comment when asked whether he had notified Albano prior to making the announcement of his withdrawal.

G. Robert Bell, a Columbia University student who described himself as Meredith's personal secretary, said Meredith would return to Columbia Law School this semester and not take advantage of the leave of absence given him by the university to enter the campaign.

Meredith's surprise announcement came after the first edition of today's New York Times carried a long interview in which Meredith said he could no more think of turning down the nomination to run against Powell than he could think of turning down a nomination to run for the presidency.

In the interview, Meredith said:

"Only one substantial reason ever came up for my not running — the simple fact of being afraid of the scorn and disfavor that fellow Negroes may have of this action because they had the opinion Mr. Powell was treated the way he was in the Congress because of his race."

He said he had not noted any scorn or disfavor from Negroes in the wake of his decision to run. Meredith added that after his experiences in Mississippi "it would be illogical to recede in the face of fear of an emotional disfavor coming from my own people."

"This election loomed to be of such great importance, so many outstanding issues that needed brought out in battle line, that it overshadowed this legitimate reason that I knew Negroes had for wanting to send Powell back just to show the white folks."

Powell also had no immediate comment, but called a news conference for 1 p.m. EST, today, even before he learned of Meredith pulling out. He was to meet with newsmen at his Miami island retreat in the Bahamas, where he has been living of late.

Called System Victim

Only Sunday, Floyd B. McKissick, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality renewed his call for Meredith to drop out of the impending April 11 special election for Powell's seat.

Saturday, Charles Evers, a leading civil rights spokesman in Mississippi, branded Meredith a "victim of the system" in which political parties pit one Negro against another.

Questioned about Meredith in Providence, R.I., Evers had remarked: "Meredith is weak enough to fall for it. He just doesn't know any better."

McKissick, speaking on the WCBS-TV "Newsweek" program, commented: "The feeling of the community is that Mr. Meredith has been used to divide the community. And I see no need for Mr. Meredith in the race."

Thieves Fail To Open Safes

Thieves who entered the Morley-Murphy Co. building at 406 Ludington St. sometime over the weekend failed to break open two large safes in the offices and left apparently without gaining any loot, it is reported by Escanaba police.

A window was broken in a garage door in the rear of the large wholesale hardware building to gain entry.

In the offices an unsuccessful effort was made to open the safes. The dial on one safe was bent, but the other safe was undamaged. Desk drawers were forced open by the intruders, police said.

The breaking and entering was discovered and reported to police this morning.

Contract Work, Job Limitation Hot UAW Issues

maintenance-repair" for a single tradesman.

Lines of demarcation for skilled tradesmen have been sought by the union but resisted strenuously and successfully in past bargaining.

To the companies the union demand amounts to featherbedding, or creating jobs where none legitimately exists.

As an example, they contend that after an electrician has completed his work on a machine, it would be foolish to have to call a pipefitter from elsewhere to close a conduit sleeve which would require only a few twists of a wrench by anyone.

Unlabeled Fight

But, by exercising their veto power, skilled tradesmen earlier this year won establishment of lines of demarcation for jobs at the Detroit automotive division of Lear Siegler, Inc., an important industry supplier.

Production workers, the unskilled and semiskilled, overwhelmingly approved an original contract, but the skilled balked and in renegotiations won demarcation.

Recently the UAW won a case before the U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington, D.C., on outside contracting.

Hester Case

The court ruled that General Motors should have negotiated with the UAW on work contracted to an outsider when this, in effect, reduced the number of jobs available to union members in GM's plant at South Gate, Calif.

Only six jobs were involved, and the UAW members replaced were subsequently given jobs elsewhere in the plant. But the court ruled, "The change had an adverse impact on the bargaining unit (UAW) since it diminished by six the number of jobs performed by its members."

The UAW views the decision as a landmark in its opposition to outside contractors. The union had appealed from an adverse ruling the National Labor Relations Board.

dress for the busy girl is worn here by Sharon Gardiner. It is a wrap around fashion in orange linen fashioned with a flared skirt trimmed with low patch pockets. The back neckline dips to a V and is trimmed with buttons. The very personification of spring is Janet Martin in this gay yellow print modified A-line skimmer. The creation is very much '67 with the sleeveless look and cowl collar.

With it Janet wears a large brimmed yellow silk hat, yellow gloves and matching yellow straw purse and shoes. The vest adds zest to this three piece aqua bonded knit suit worn by Judy Birn (right). The cutaway styled vest is fastened at the top with brass buttons and chain and the slim skirt is tailored and topped with a rib knit of aqua and white. (Daily Press Photo)

Three New Upper Peninsula Cage Champs

Wakefield Cards Trip State Titlist L'Anse

MARQUETTE—Wakefield's smooth as silk Cardinals proved their point here Saturday afternoon before a capacity-plus crowd, knocking off defending state Class C champion L'Anse by a 70-59 margin.

Coach Jim Daniels' Big Reds swept out of the western end of the Upper Peninsula this season with a reputation as a team with a deadly defense. They swept aside all competition to challenge the state champs with a 20-0 record, same as L'Anse, in the title tilt.

And in the final turning, it was defense that turned the trick.

The Cardinals muffled L'Anse's famed long bomb that had propelled the Hornets to 29 straight victories extending back to the midway point of last season.

They worked the play a half dozen times while romping over Houghton in the semifinals, 80-56. The play starts when big Gerry Gerard, 6 foot 5 inch senior center, hauls in a defensive rebound. He whips and fires a long downcourt pass to speedy Dean Kent, hitting his receiver with unfailing accuracy. Kent then bounds high in the air for a simple layup to complete the maneuver.

Daniels put Sheldon Jakkola, a 5 foot 11 inch senior, on Kent's back, figuratively speaking, and the L'Anse player was never able to break loose.

Not only did Jakkola stop the bomb, he all but blanked Kent from the field. Kent managed only one field goal in 15 attempts. And Jakkola accomplished his amazing deeds without once fouling Kent.

While the Cardinal defense stalled the bomb and stunted L'Anse's outside shooting, it didn't stop Gerard from turning in a fabulous one-man performance. He pounded in 11 field goals in 16 shots and added 11 for 12 from the free throw line for 33 points to boost his season total to 624. The broad shouldered senior also hauled down 17 rebounds. Wakefield got a championship display from big Al Inkala, another splendid basketball specimen at 6 feet 5 inches. Inkala was a demon on the boards, wrestling 22 rebounds to go with his 25 points. Roger Norkoli, a clever guard with lightning hands and feet, chipped in 17 points and John Francisco, a 6 foot 1 inch junior, came through with 10. Eight points each by Jakkola and hardworking Dave Brown gave the Cardinals great scoring balance.

It was Wakefield all the way as the Cards put the first two points on the scoreboard with a 15 foot jumper by Francisco from the right of the key. The Cards had a 15-14 edge at the end of the period.

Wakefield assumed full command late in the second period, reeling off the last six points in the half for a 33-23 margin. From there on in the Cardinals were never challenged as they built their cushion to 21 points, 70-49, before relaxing to allow the Hornets the final 10 points in the game.

Statistically, Wakefield hit 24 of 53 shots from the field for .453 and added 22 of 30 from the charity stripe for .733. The Cardinals grabbed 43 rebounds as a team.

L'Anse made 20 of 60 shots from the field for a cool .333 and 19 of 24 from the line for .792. The Hornets had 39 rebounds.

DAVE NYQUIST, 6 foot 5 inch Escanaba High School senior, goes up for two points in the Class A regional tournament game against Ottawa Hills at Grand Rapids Saturday night. ## Esky Eliminated In Grand Rapids

GRAND RAPIDS — The Escanaba Eskymos found their uphill battle too steep in the fourth quarter of the Class A regional tournament finals here Saturday night and bowed to Ottawa Hills, 75-57.

The Upper Peninsula titlists found themselves in a deep 19-9 hole in the first period and battled furiously in the next two frames to outscore the downstate Indians by two points.

Early in the fourth period the Eskymos narrowed their deficit to four points, 50-46, but couldn't get the necessary bucket to close in to two. Again midway in the period the margin was four points, but Ottawa Hills surged with a final flurry of field goals and free throws to win going away.

"We were within four points, but that wasn't enough and we had to go for the ball," Coach Harold Johnson stated. "They played it smart, waited for the good shot and made us commit the fouls," the Esky mentor explained.

Ottawa Hills rammed in eight field goals and nine free throws in the fourth quarter to outscore the Eskymos by a 25-15 margin in the stretch.

With a sophomore and junior dominated team, Ottawa Hills had too much height and too many gunners for the U.P. champs. All five Indian starters scored in double figures, led by 6 foot 3 inch forward Otis Smith with 22 points. Ernie Johnson, 6 foot 7 inch center, pumped in 14 points and led Coach Bob Hendrickson's quint on the boards where Ottawa Hills had a 45-40 edge in rebounds.

Bob Myrvall, 6 foot 5 inch senior center, closed out his Escanaba career with an outstanding individual performance. Myrvall led the Eskymos in scoring with 19 points and battled his bigger foes for 15 rebounds. Bernie Larson jerked down nine and Dave Nyquist snatched eight to account for most of Escanaba's board work.

Paul Miller, classy 6 foot 1 inch senior guard, put the finishing touch on his brilliant Esky career by scoring 18 points. Escanaba's all-time scoring champion had to work against Ottawa Hills' Marshall Purnell who covered Miller like another layer of skin.

Miller boosted his season total to 549 and his career mark to 1,111, both new school records.

Personal fouls led the Eskymos into a deadly trap in the fourth quarter of action. Escanaba lost the services of Larson midway in the period and he was followed by Nyquist and sophomore guard Dan Mylander in the following two minutes.

Maroons Snatch Crown From Ishpeming Quint

MARQUETTE — The Menominee Maroons lifted Ishpeming's Upper Peninsula Class B cage crown here Saturday night with all the finesse of a thief in the night.

Coach Bob Krysiak's cagers humbled the defending champs, 79-60, to win the first Peninsula title in the school's basketball history.

If you didn't know better, you'd have sworn it was Ishpeming's first time in the U.P. finals. The Hematites, coached by Duane Phillips virtually handed the pennant to Menominee.

Ishpeming chose to go with a zone press against the Great Northern Conference runners-up and it turned out to be the worst mistake they ever made. Menominee not only broke the press repeatedly but by actual count scored 14 solo layups off it. And the Maroons blew a couple more that would have zoomed their margin of victory even higher.

It seemed apparent to everyone in the crowd of 5,200 at the Northern Michigan University fieldhouse that Ishpeming was heading for a spill from the opening minutes of the game.

With Fred Matz canning three easy dog shots, Dave Haglund adding three solos and both Pat Miller and Bill Jones hitting on short jumpers, Menominee vaulted into a 16-9 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The racehorse Hematites battled furiously in the second period and closed with a flurry of eight straight points to narrow their deficit to 34-29 at halftime.

Ishpeming made a brief run at the taller Maroons in the third period, closing to within one point at 36-35 on a field goal by Bill Zhulkie and a free throw by Bill Parkkonen, but it didn't last long.

Five times in the final four minutes of the third quarter Menominee broke Ishpeming's press, found the open man under the bucket and registered unblemished layups. It was 55-42 by the end of the period and Ishpeming's reign as U.P. champion was ended.

The Maroons ran the score to 26 points, 79-63, before the Hematites rattled off the last seven counters in the game to make it more respectable at the end.

Menominee came out of the game with a 50 percent shooting performance as the result of the easy short shots, hitting on 36 of 71 attempts. Ishpeming had a cold 29 percent from the field, making only 22 of 76 attempts.

All five Menominee starters, who went 30 minutes apiece in the contest, reached double scoring figures. Jones lipped six layups and added three medium jumpers for individual honors with 19 points. Pat Miller, a brilliant 6 foot 3 junior star, fired in 15 points to boost his season scoring total to 423. Menominee cleared the boards with ease, snaring 60 rebounds to 41 for Hematites. Dewey Bellisle was the Maroon leader with 17.

Menominee will carry a 10-10 record into the state tournament quarterfinals Wednesday night. The setback Ishpeming had with a 19-2 record for the year.

Inkala, Miller Best Players In Tourney

MARQUETTE—Al Inkala, 6 foot 5 inch senior center from Wakefield and Pat Miller, 6 foot 3 inch Menominee junior, were named the outstanding players in the three day regional basketball tournament by newspaper, radio and television reporters.

Rounding out the first team selections were Gerry Gerard of L'Anse, Bill Zhulkie of Ishpeming and Terry Conrad of Ewen.

Named to the second team were Fred Mats and Dewey Bellisle of Menominee, Phil Joe of Houghton, John Whitens of Hermansville and Roger Norkoli of Wakefield.

Killy Captures Top Ski Honor

FRANCONIA, N.H. (AP) — Jean Claude Killy of France, called the world's best competitive skier, says he likes to ski for pleasure.

"I do that when I race," he said Sunday after winning the downhill, giant slalom and slalom in the three-day North American Alpine Championships at Cannon Mountain.

More than 90 top-ranked skiers from Europe, Canada and the United States competed in the Alpine but Killy and his French teammates couldn't be matched.

On Friday, Killy won the men's downhill by covering the 8,388-foot course in 1:29.03, and Isabelle Mir zipped down the women's 5,870-foot run in 1:28.74.

On Saturday, Killy flashed down the 60-gate, 4,000-foot course of the giant slalom in 1:35.63. Christine Beranger took a first for the French woman in 1:18.18 over the 55-gate, 3,460-foot course.

By Sunday, most of the 15,000 spectators lining the course, expected more French victories. Three French girls, led by Marielle Goitschel won the combined slalom, and Killy bested off an upset attempt by Jim Heuga of Tahoe City, Calif., to take the men's slalom.

Heuga had clocked a faster time than Killy in the second run of the 1,600-foot slalom but the French super skier's first run time of 43.98 was enough to give him over-all first place. Killy finished with a combined time of 1:28.05. Heuga's was 1:28.12.

The Escanaba Hawks traveled to Calumet Saturday night and bowed, 17-5, in a hockey exhibition clash.

Scoring for the Hawks were John Ferrari with two goals, Jim Ferrari, Ed Provo and Jim Provo one each. Goalie Mike King made 52 stops. Other players seeing action were Tony Kutches, Dennis Bourdeau, Bob DeGrand, Gary Bourdeau, John Bourdeau, Dennis Lancoeur and Tim Goymerac.

Dan Connors, linebacker with the Oakland Raiders, played fullback in high school yet never scored a touchdown. In his third year of pro ball he intercepted a pass and ran 23 yards for a touchdown against the New York Jets.

Trouble Ahead, Says Robertson

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Oscar Robertson, basketball superstar and president of the National Basketball Association Players Association, sees storms ahead for the NBA, whether or not the current pension squabble is settled without a threatened player off boycott.

Robertson, after Cincinnati's 120-119 loss to the St. Louis Hawks Sunday, said, "My feeling is a lot of players are going to jump to the new American Basketball Association."

And, he admitted, he's among the players who have been contacted by representatives of the new league.

NBA players have threatened to boycott the league playoffs unless they are granted a $600 monthly pension for men with 10 years in the NBA. Club owners reportedly are willing to give $500.

But, Robertson said, "The problem is a nuthin' that we want the plan retroactive for players now in the league."

Mel McGaha, former Cleveland and Kansas City manager, will pilot Oklahoma City in the Pacific Coast League next season.

Hill's Redskins Can't Overcome Ewen's Height

MARQUETTE — Coach Don Hill's Hermansville Redskins played a near - perfect game here Saturday night but bowed to the No. 1 team in the state in the regional Class D tournament finals, 70-63.

Hermansville used every-weapon at its command in an attempt to offset the towering height of Ewen's Terry Conrad, a 6 foot 9 inch giant.

The Redskins held their mistakes to an absolute minimum, committing only four turnovers in the game. They were guilty of only 11 personal fouls. They had trouble shooting over outstretched hands of Conrad, but still connected on 28 shots from the field and added 7 of 10 from the free throw line.

Still the Redskins couldn't pull it out as Conrad powered the Bulldogs to their 21st victory in 22 starts heading into the state quarterfinals this week.

Conrad plucked 22 rebounds off the boards and tossed in 25 points. He got a big assist in scoring from Bob Franti with 20 and Dennis Routhaux 14. In all, the Bulldogs picked off 59 rebounds to 43 for the Redskins.

It wasn't until the final two minutes of action that Ewen cinched its first Upper Peninsula title in history. Franti hit a field goal, Conrad tipped in a rebound and Franti closed the Ewen scoring with a five foot jumper to wipe out any Hermansville plans for a late comeback.

The teams hooked up in a torrid scoring duel that had the fieldhouse fans roaring in the first period. Hermansville poured home 10 buckets in 13 attempts drilled five straight from the foul line to take a 25-21 lead.

The pace cooled in the second period in which Doug LaCourcier found the range for three long jump shots and John Whitens hit twice from the side of the key as Hermansville lead, 38-34, at halftime.

The tide turned midway in the third quarter. Conrad tied the score at 42-42 with a layup and Doug Johnson set the Bulldogs ahead with a rebound bucket. Conrad tossed in another short shot and Franti clicked to make it 48-42, Ewen. Hermansville closed the margin to 51-48 at the end of the period but never recovered. They were four points down when Ewen put on its final scoring spurt to wrap it up in the final minutes of the game.

Whitens led the Redskins with 22 points, all from the field, while Len Welling contributed 16 as did LaCourcier. Rander Pochesato, showing the effects of the bout with the flu that caused him to miss the last three games in the regular season, closed out his junior year with 517 points in 19 starts. He tallied seven in the finale.

The setback closed Hermansville's campaign with an 18-5 record.

Drawings for the quarterfinals, to be held at selected spots around the state Wednesday, were scheduled in Lansing today.

In top games Saturday, Hamtramck upset Birmingham Groves, the second - ranked team in Class A in the final Associated Press high school poll. Ike Blessitt made two free throws with 15 seconds to play and handed Hamtramck a 70-68 victory. Blessitt finished with 26 points.

Detroit Pershing, which upset top-ranked Detroit Northwestern, won a regional title earlier in the week.

Grand Rapids East Christian defeated Grand Rapids South Christian 67-51 Saturday. Bill Ryksee led the winners with 23 points.

South Haven, the top - rated team in Class B, got by Vicksburg 40-38 on a tip by Tom Fritz in the last three seconds.

Wakefield beat L'Anse 70-59 and ended a string of 29 straight victories over two seasons for L'Anse. Wakefield is 21-0 after knocking off the defending Class C champion and the top-ranked team in the class. Al Inkala topped Wakefield with 25 points, but Gerry Gerard got 33 in the losing cause.

Ewen, top-ranked in Class D, trimmed Hermansville 70-63. Terry Conrad, a 6-9 center, scored 25 points for Ewen.

Tar Heels Get Another Chance To Twist Tiger Tail In Tourney Action

By The Associated Press

North Carolina's proud Tar Heels get another chance to twist the Tiger's tail this week—but Duke's disappointed Blue Devils are going to the dogs.

And Duke's Vic Bubas thinks these particular dogs—the Salukis of Southern Illinois—will bite just as sharp as they bark.

North Carolina, the nation's No. 4 college basketball power, downed the Blue Devils 83-73 last Saturday night for the Atlantic Coast Conference title and a berth opposite Princeton's fifth-ranked Tigers in the NCAA championships.

Princeton handed North Carolina its first setback of the season last December.

Duke settled for the open spot in the National Invitation Tournament at New York, where the Blue Devils will collide with Southern Illinois' small college titans tonight in a quarter-final contest.

"I repeat what I said before the ACC finals," said Blue Devils Coach Bubas. "The ACC team playing Southern Illinois will be the underdog. Everybody who has seen them tells me they are a great team."

The Saluki is an Egyptian hunting dog—similar in appearance to the Greyhound—whom the Carbondale, Ill., school adopted as its athletic symbol in 1951.

Last Thursday night, the Salukis established their kingly pace with the greyhound by racing past St. Peter's, N.J., 103-58 in their Madison Square Garden debut. The margin of victory was an NIT record.

Coach Jack Hartman, however, tossed Bubas' bouquet back at the Duke pilot Sunday. "I don't see how he can feel that way," Hartman said. "This situation is brand new to us, but Duke is an established tournament club. They've been in these prestige post-season play-offs many times. I wouldn't think they'd be underdogs against Southern Illinois."

Underdogs pulled off several surprises in both the NCAA and NIT Saturday, with Dayton's 69-67 overtime victory over sixth-ranked Western Kentucky in the nationals and Rutgers' 78-76 NIT ambush of Utah State among the major upsets.

In other NCAA first-round action, Princeton whipped West Virginia 68-57; seventh-ranked Houston nipped New Mexico State 59-58; ninth-ranked Boston College got by Connecticut 48-42; No. 10 Texas Western eliminated Seattle 62-54; Virginia Tech upset Toledo 62-56 and St. John's, N.Y., ousted Temple 57-53.

Providence, led by Jim Walker's 37 points, trounced Memphis State 77-68. New Mexico edged Syracuse 68-64 and Marquette topped Tulsa 64-60 in the NIT.

Unbeaten UCLA, the nation's No. 1 team, wound up its regular season by smashing Southern California 83-55 for a 26-0 mark as Lew Alcindor tossed in 28 points. The Bruins start their NCAA bid Friday night against Wyoming's Western Athletic Conference champions.

North Carolina earned a rematch with Princeton by knocking off North Carolina State, Wake Forest and Duke in the ACC tourney. Larry Miller's 32 points paced the Tar Heels past Duke in the final.

"This was the toughest possible way to win the championship," said North Carolina pilot Dean Smith. "Beating our three major North Carolina rivals on successive nights... was a great accomplishment. We're delighted at the prospect of meeting Princeton again."

Rutgers' Bob Lloyd, the top foul shooter in the country, hit five free throws down the stretch in capping a 42-point effort that lifted the Scarlet Knights past taller Utah State. Walker, Providence's All America, became the 23rd player in college history to top the 2,000-point career mark with his binge against Memphis State. He now has 2,006.

Bob Hoover's 25-foot jump shot in the final second of overtime carried Dayton past Western Kentucky and Elvin Hayes pumped in 30 points in Houston's victory over New Mexico State.

Wyoming nailed the WAC title beating Brigham Young 70-63 in a playoff and Indiana won the Big Ten crown by drubbing Purdue 95-82.

The University of Pacific edged San Francisco 63-59 for its 20th straight victory; Kansas made it 11 in a row by defeating Kansas State 74-66 and Colorado upended NIT-bound Nebraska 64-57 in regular-season finals.

Southern Illinois and Duke share tonight's NIT bill with the Nebraska-Marshall, W.Va., quarter-final test.

Ryun Is Happy Indoor Season Finally Ended

DETROIT (AP) — Jim Ryun of Kansas ran his fastest indoor mile, a self-paced 3:58.6, in the highly successful NCAA track meet over the weekend, but the world's premiere middle distance star is glad the indoor season has ended.

"I'm happy the inside competition is finished—I'm always afraid of injury indoors and the boards are hard on my feet," said Ryun today, announcing his next start will be in a dual meet with UCLA in Los Angeles two weeks hence.

Ryun, who set the world outdoor mile record of 3:51.3 at Berkeley, Calif., last July, complained of blisters on both feet after whizzing around Cobo Arena's board oval 11 times Saturday for his third sub-four-minute mile indoors. He also has turned the mile indoors in 3:58.8 and 3:59.6.

It was a snappy finish to a string weekend in which Ryun suffered a rare defeat by Villanova's Dave Patrick in the 800 Friday night after the Kansas Comet had to run mile and half-mile qualifying heats.

Patrick, who skipped the mile, simply ran away from Ryun to win the half-mile in world indoor record time of 1:48.9 as the Jayhawk sophomore finished second in 1:50.7.

Neither Ryun nor Patrick was able to forestall Southern California's surge to its first team title in NCAA indoor competition with 26 points.

The two-day competition produced nine NCAA records in the 16-event program. Five records were set and two tied in Saturday's 10-event wind-up.

In dethroning Kansas USC's Trojans grabbed 10 points alone in the pole vault, won with a record 17-1/4 "leap by brilliant Rob Seagren. Another Trojan record breaker was hurdler Earl McCullough, who posted a 7.0 second mark in both the semifinals and finals of the 60-yard barrier race.

Southern California's two-mile relay team accounted for a third Trojan first. Oklahoma took second place with 17 points on victories by defending champion Bill Calhoun in the 440 and the Sooner mile relay team, clocked in meet record time of 3:15.5.

Kansas placed third with 16—nine contributed by Ryun with his mile triumph and half-mile second.

Ryun left nothing for his five mile rivals to do, but follow him. The Sullivan Award winner, who usually lays back and then overpowers the field with his tremendous finish, streaked in front at the start and had a half-mile clocking of 2:01.5.

"I wanted to get out in front and see how I felt," said Ryun, who won by about 40 yards over Sam Bair, Kent State's national AAU champ. "I felt good and then went all out. I'm sure that Friday defeat helped spur me on."

Pistons Get Tie For 4th

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Pistons have hustled their way to a fourth-place tie in the National Basketball Association's Western Division.

Detroit trounced ailing Los Angeles 120-104 Sunday night and moved into a tie with Chicago for the division's final playoff spot. The Pistons have five games left.

In other NBA action Philadelphia clinched the Eastern Division title with a 131-120 victory over New York, Boston outpointed Baltimore 123-118 and St. Louis nipped Cincinnati 120-119.

Former Pistons coach Dave DeBusschere and teammate Dave Bing poured in 26 points each and Eddie Miles added 19 for the Detroit victory.

Los Angeles star Jerry West was sidelined with a muscle pull and Laker Walt Hazzard was out with a cold. High-scoring Laker Elgin Baylor put in one of his poorest performances of the season, hitting only 23 points. Archie Clark added another 23.

Detroit built a 58-49 halftime advantage, then moved to a 108-87 lead in the final quarter and Los Angeles never came close.

The Knicks built their lead to nine points in the third quarter before the 76ers got 12 straight points and raced to victory.

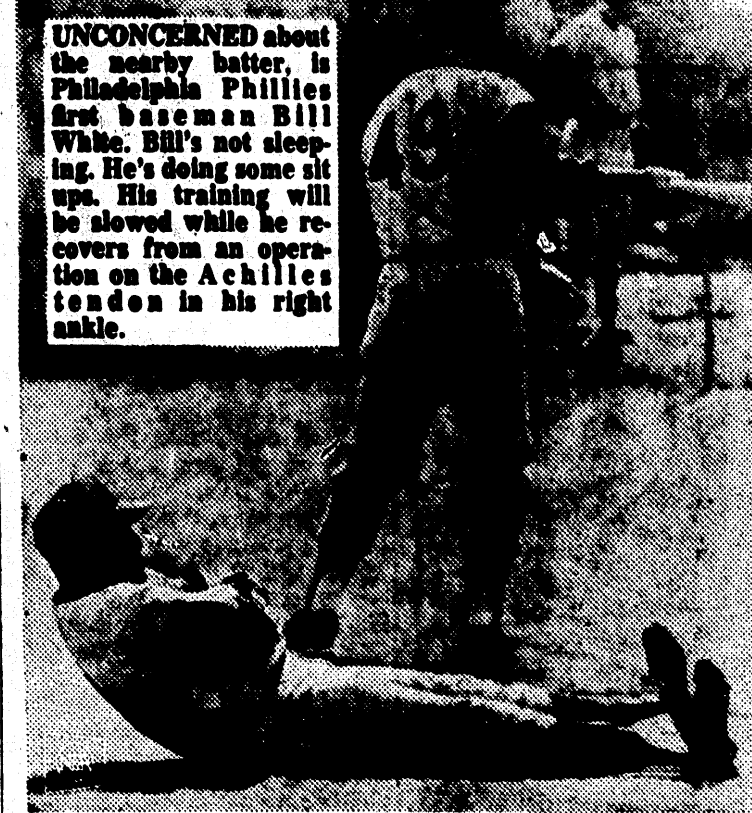

Hal Greer had 36 points for the winners and Billy Cunningham added 30. High scorers for New York were Walt Bellamy with 34 and Cazzie Russell with 28.

Bailey Howell poured in 30 points and John Havlicch contributed 21 to spark the Celtics to their eighth victory in nine meetings with the Bullets this season. Former Piston Ray Scott led Baltimore with 31.

Cincinnati's Flynn Robinson missed three free throws after the final buzzer to hand the victory to St. Louis. Joe Caldwell fired in the Hawks' winning basket with 25 seconds left.

Boros Captures First Money In Citrus Tourney

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Julius Boros says he won enough money capturing the Citrus Open golf title to "pay off the mortgage and retire," but the cagey campaigner isn't quite ready to call it quits.

Off to his fastest start in 17 seasons as a pro, the 47-year-old father of seven is determined to win a spot on the Ryder Cup squad which meets England's top professionals in October.

"There's not much money in the Ryder Cup, but it's worth a lot in prestige," Boros added after picking up a $23,000 check for winning the Citrus crown, his second title payoff of the year.

"That would be a great way to bow out, beating the English," Boros said, but later he added that he had no definite plans to retire.

"I used to retire every Monday and made a comeback every Thursday," said Boros, who with the rest of the Orlando contenders will play in the Jacksonville Open which starts Thursday.

Boros, now second on the 1967 official golf money list with $43,287 isn't playing like a man about to quit.

He and Arnold Palmer are the only two double winners of the pro tour this year, and Boros already has made more money than he did in any year since 1963 when he won three tournaments, including the U.S. Open for the second time.

Boros, who won the Phoenix Open last month, shaved 10 strokes off par in his 72-hole tour of the Rio Pinar course, winning by one stroke over Palmer and Canadian George Knudson.

Helped by a deadly 60-foot approach shot and a 25-foot putt for birdies on the front nine, Boros finished with a 70 for a tournament total of 274.

Palmer finished with a 68 and Knudson, 29-year-old Toronto veteran, roared home with a 68.

Dean Refram, who has never won in six years on the tour, claimed his biggest paycheck with $5,750 for fourth at 276 after slipping to a closing 72. He started the last round tied for first.

Jack Nicklaus shot his third straight 69 for a 278, where he was tied with Bobby Nichols and Bert Yancey, a stroke back of Mason Rudolph and Kermit Zarley.

Doug Sanders, who led during the first two rounds, shot a final round 74 for a 279 total. Gary Player, who started only a stroke off the lead, wound up with a 74 for a 279 total.

Spartans Get Piece Of Big Ten Pennant

By The Associated Press

John Benington, who kept insisting his Michigan State ball club wasn't as good as it looked, enjoyed a share of the Big Ten basketball title today while Michigan's Dave Strack, who said his Wolverines weren't "that bad," has the summer to muse over a last-place finish.

The Spartans clinched a share of the title Saturday with a 79-66 victory over Northwestern while Indiana bumped Purdue 95-82. In other Big Ten finales, Iowa defeated Michigan 83-76 and Wisconsin upended Illinois 102-92.

MSU and the Hoosiers both ended the season with 10-4 records but Indiana won the right to represent the Big Ten in the NCAA tournament because the Spartans were there more recently.

"Look at us," said Benington. "We're last in the conference in field goal and free throw shooting but we're still tied for first."

Matthew Althe, playing his last game, led the Spartans past Northwestern with 21 points and reserve Hayward Edwards aided 18. Jim Burns topped Northwestern with 22.

Despite the loss, which left defending champion Michigan in last place with a 2-12 conference record, Strack said: "the team played hard. I think they're better than their record shows."

Strack blamed Michigan's loss to Iowa on "critical errors" which he said he hoped to resolve before next season.

The only graduating starter, Craig Dill, topped Michigan with 20 points. Detroit's Sam Williams was high for the Hawkeyes with 28.

Indiana, a rags to riches team which finished last in the conference in 1966, and MSU had the poorest championship record since the Hoosiers won the Big Ten with a 10-4 mark in 1956.

Tom Kondla won the individual scoring championship with 336 points to become the first Minnesota player to achieve the feat in 50 years. Jim Dawson of Illinois was second with 337, a shade ahead of Iowa's Sam Williams with 333.

Indiana isn't given much hope in the NCAA championships but neither were the Hoosiers given much chance of winning the Big Ten crown.

Indiana holds two of the four NCAA championships won by Big Ten teams. The Hoosiers won in 1940 and again in 1953. Wisconsin captured the crown in 1941 and Ohio State was the 1960 winner.

If Indiana has one strength, it is balance. The Hoosiers' outstanding player is Butch Joyner, the only Indiana player to average 20 points a game in Big Ten competition.

As a team, the Hoosiers rank sixth on offense and seventh on defense. Their four conference losses were to Iowa twice, Michigan State and Illinois.

Outside the conference they have lost to Ohio University, Kansas State and Washington. Indiana did not meet any of the teams which finished in the top ten of The Associated Press poll.

Aguirre, Wood Tiger Heroes?

LAKELAND, Fla. (AP) — What's this? Jake Wood and Hank Aguirre Detroit Tiger heroes?

That's right. High Henry pitched three innings and gave up just one hit, no runs, walked one and struck out two. Wood hit a home run and a double and drove in two runs. He was playing first base in place of the injured Norm Cosh.

And the Tigers won their third straight Grapefruit League game, whipping the Minnesota Twins 10-3.

Aguirre said his strong pitching was due to the teaching of pitching coach Johnny Sain.

"I didn't throw one curve ball today that I would have thrown last season," said Aguirre. "They were all the quick curves that Sain teaches. Not my big old hangers."

Manager Mayo Smith said "If Henry can come out of the bullpen and throw that curve to left-hand hitters, it'll be just fine."

Aguirre, however, is hoping for a starting job.

Wood and Jim Northrup hit their second homers of the season. Bill Freehan and rookie Tom Matchick got their first roundtrippers.

Dick McAuliffe had a double and single for the Tigers and Tony Oliva matched that for the Twins.

Governor's Income Tax Plan Gets First Airing By Senators

By WILLIAM HEATH
LANSING (AP)—Gov. George Romney's income tax program is expected to reach the floor of the Legislature within the next 10 days, with the Senate likely to get first crack at the governor's bills.

In February, Romney submitted a package of bills to each house, calling for a state income tax of 2½ per cent on individuals, 5 per cent on corporations and 8 per cent on financial institutions.

The five-bill package levying Michigan's first income tax also would provide for some relief from sales and property taxes and would repeal the business activities tax and increase the intangibles tax credit.

When he announced his plan, Romney set an April 1 deadline for its approval. Otherwise, he said, cutbacks in state spending will be needed.

The House and Senate taxation committees have had more than a month to work on the bills—holding public hearings and consulting with state financial officers.

Some Changes Certain
No one is sure at this point how the package will look when it is reported out of committee, but some changes are certain.

Senate Taxation Committee Chairman Harry DeMaso, R-Battle Creek, says the package has been redrafted, changing it from five bills to seven.

This was done to make sure the bills meet the constitutional requirement that no bill deal with more than one subject, DeMaso said.

"There have been no changes in the tax rates or the repeals," DeMaso says, "but this doesn't mean they can't be changed."

Senate Majority Leader Emil Lockwood, R-St. Louis, says he feels the tax program "with certain amendments and modifications stands a very good chance of passing the Senate."

Lockwood has indicated that Republicans and minority Democrats will caucus during the next few days in hopes of reaching agreement on amendments to be added before the tax program is reported out of committee.

One such adjustment, Lockwood says, is likely to be necessary to provide more money for education.

Romney has been criticized by educators who claim his proposed budget and tax package do not provide enough money to meet rising school costs.

May Boost Rates
"There are 148 different ideas going around now, but I'm sure there's going to have to be something more for education," says DeMaso.

This could mean that the governor's suggested tax rates might be boosted, DeMaso adds.

"If you're going to give certain things you logically have to adjust the front end—increasing the rates," he said.

Meanwhile, House Taxation Committee Chairman James N. Folks, R-Horton, says his committee is writing its own bill as a substitute to Romney's tax measure, but he adds that he isn't sure yet just what changes will be made.

Romney's proposed 2½ per cent personal income tax may be increased and the 8 per cent tax on financial institutions decreased, Folks said.

Democratic critics of Romney's program say it already puts too much of the new revenue burden on the individual

Two Are Hurt In Accident

Two persons were injured, neither seriously, in a two-car collision at 4:45 p.m. Sunday on U.S. 2 and 41 near the Terrace Rd. in Wells Township, State Police reported.

Hazel M. Bonifas, 65, of 1313 Minneapolis Ave., driver of one car, was treated at St. Francis Hospital and released. Driver of the second car, Daniel B. LeGault, 72, Perkins, was also injured, police said, but did not seek hospital treatment.

Swamp Tax Boost Urged

The Taxation Committee of the State House of Representatives is now considering a proposal from Rep. Charles H. Varnum (R-Manistique) to increase the tax on state-owned homestead and swamp land from 20c per acre to 25c.

The five cent increase in taxes the state pays counties for its land would go to county general funds and help ease the ever increasing financial burden faced by county governments.

The current 20c per acre tax is applied to township and public school finances only. Under the Varnum proposal that portion of the increased tax would remain unchanged in allocation. "It is time," Representative Varnum contends, "to take some of the pressure off counties whose finances are already overburdened."

"The legislature is in the midst of a big push to achieve fiscal reform to provide more revenue to meet state programs. We must also face up to our responsibility to Michigan's counties which must also provide more services at higher cost."

This tax bill is a continuation of Varnum's effort to meet growing county finances. He also is sponsor of a bill now pending before the Legislature which would increase the minimum public health grant to each county from $5,500 to $10,000 per year.

City Council Meeting Set

The Manistique City Council, at its meeting at 7:30 p.m., today, will consider compensation setting and an appropriation for the Charter Commission, on which an election will be held later. First meeting of the commission also is to be set.

The agenda also includes appointment of the new manager, Robert Noe to street administrator and state highway posts and appointment of a member of the canvassing board.

A food handler ordinance, cemetery rate change and building authority discussion are on the agenda under old business.

Mrs. Leslie Buruse, Manistique had a perfect pinochle hand with a double run in hearts with aces, playing Friday at her home. She was partnered with Mrs. Arthur Matlin, playing against Mrs. Martin Beaudre and Mrs. John Brown.

Clean Water Drive Planned

EAST LANSING — A symposium at Michigan State University has set the stage for establishment of local citizens' groups throughout the state to fight water pollution.

Federal and state officials met at the March 4 session to lay the groundwork for a series of public hearings on a local level, at which citizens and groups can voice their opinions on use of rivers and lakes in their area.

Howard Tanner, director of MSU's Division of Natural Resources, said the fight against pollution will be "long, hard and expensive, but clean water will be worth whatever it costs."

Charles D. Harris, Michigan Department of Conservation, said public hearings will be held to determine whether standards and water quality criteria proposed by the Water Resources Commission are what the public wants.

Citizens may obtain further information by writing to the Michigan Water Resources Commission in Lansing, and asking that their name be placed on the mailing list for hearings to be held in their area. At these meetings, criteria will be established, and the panelists indicated that all water interests should be represented.

Handicapped Can Borrow Talkies

Michigan residents with physical handicaps besides visual impairment may now borrow "talking books" from libraries for the blind and physically handicapped. The Library of Congress, which supplies the "talking books" (records) to 34 regional libraries in the country, has extended its national Books-for-the-Blind program to include persons who cannot read conventional printed materials because of physical limitations.

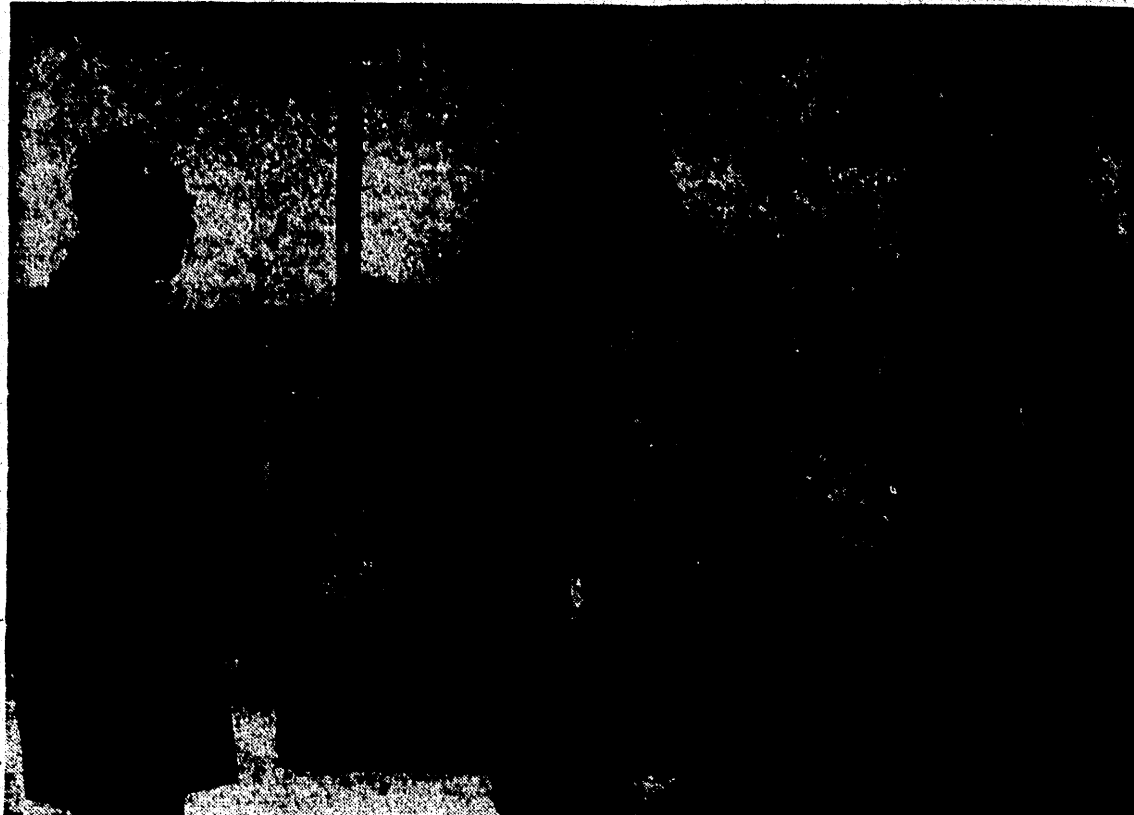

Michigan readers with handicaps may borrow the "talking books" and phonographs (talking book machines) from the State Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, 735 E. Michigan Ave., Lansing, which serves all the state with the exception of Wayne County.

Settlement Sighted In Chicago Water Diversion

CHICAGO — A settlement may be near in the eight-year old Lake Michigan diversion case.

Six Great Lakes states that brought suit in the U.S. Supreme Court against Chicago and Illinois have made overtures for a settlement without court arguments.

A settlement would encompass with slight changes recommendations made last December by Judge Albert B. Maris, an adviser to the Supreme Court.

Maris recommended that the court continue to permit Chicago to divert the same amount of water from Lake Michigan that it now does and not to force the city to return its used water to the lake as treated sewage effluent.

The court is expected to approve such an agreement.

A hint of a settlement came when the high court, at the request of all the principal parties, extended for 60 days the deadline for filing exceptions to Maris' report.

The new deadline is May 8. Attorneys for the six states that brought suit have held a number of meetings to discuss a settlement.

The six states are New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Thomas Corbett, deputy Pennsylvania attorney general, summed up the reason such a settlement is possible:

"This is a case that everybody thinks he won."

William F. Eich Jr., assistant Wisconsin attorney general, agreed and said: "We in Wisconsin feel we have gained more than we have lost."

Raymond Haik, special Minnesota assistant attorney general, also agreed, saying: "Judge Maris must have had the wisdom of Solomon when he drew up these recommendations."

Amvets Traffic Safety Week Set

LANSING (AP) — Gov. George Romney has proclaimed March 18-25 as Amvets Traffic Safety Week in Michigan. The governor urged support of the traffic safety program sponsored by the veterans group.

"We're reasonably satisfied with them, and so are the people on the other side (Chicago and Illinois.)"

Attorney Thomas M. Thomas, who argued the case for Chicago and Illinois, said there seems to be a consensus among the affected parties in Illinois that they have won a victory.

Randall Le Boeuf Jr., a New York assistant attorney general, was chosen by representatives of the other five Great Lakes states to make overtures to Illinois officials.

It was learned that Le Boeuf already has conferred with Thomas and a representative of the Three Towns Commissioners.

The commission—composed of Chicago's western suburbs of Elmhurst, Villa Park and Lombard—had sought to build a pipeline to the lake to divert water for use by the three communities.

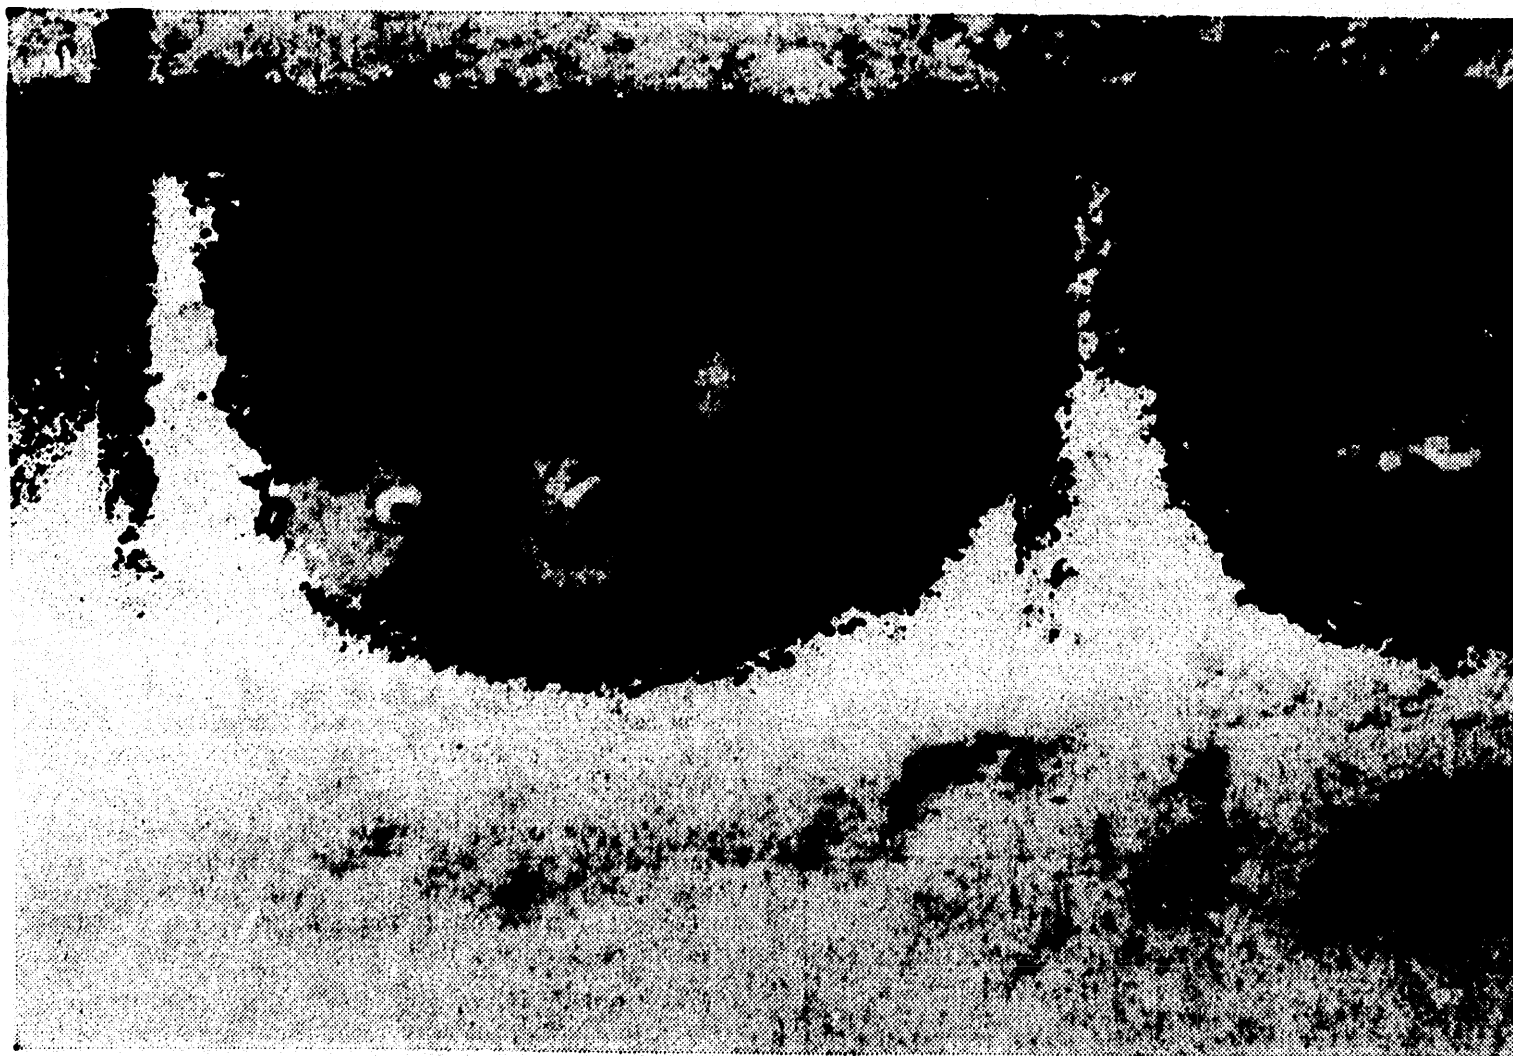

The suit by the six states blocked the plan.

Judge Maris said the three suburbs cannot take lake water for their own use unless it is counted as part of the 3,200 cubic feet per second allotted to Illinois.

Jay C. Flowers, counsel for Ohio in the case, said: "An agreement would eliminate the necessary of filing exceptions before the court and a lot of further time and delays."

He and the attorneys for the other litigant states said the 60-day delay will give them time to enter into serious negotiations with Illinois officials.

One of those days when your phone means so much

You're weathered in with a houseful of kids. So you call for the weather report and learn it's a stay-at-home day. But...you had places to go to and things to do. So, you cancel your appointment at the hairdresser's. Call the drugstore and order more of the baby's special formula... just in case. And then you call your friend to tell her the shopping trip is off. What else in your home does so much for you, and costs so little?
